

Mission Statement

The Hinsdale Central Counseling services are the cornerstone of a planned program encompassing all facets of academic decision-making, personal-social development and post-secondary opportunities. The Counseling Office's holistic and comprehensive services support other quality educational programs within the school and provide further commitment to the intellectual, physical, social, and cultural development of the individual student as he or she prepares for college and career options.

A professional climate of respect, responsibility, high standards, commitment, and collaboration in decision-making is fostered within the Counseling Office. Our exemplary guidance program consists of experienced professionals who promote the intellectual and emotional growth and well-being of all students. The department is committed to high standards and expectations for all students.
